Financial Review – Assess your Progress

The end of the year can be hectic, but time invested in reviewing your financial progress and making plans for the New Year can pay big dividends.

Taxes

Planning and adjustments at year-end can add up to big savings in April. Make an IRA contribution, a charitable gift or an extra house payment and you could save hundreds if not thousands.

Retirement Planning

Define the lifestyle you want in retirement and decide how long you want to work. Then determine what you need to save to get there, what other sources of income you may have and what sort of events could impact your plan.

Investments

Review your portfolio. Do your holdings still meet your financial needs? Are you continuing to hold onto companies for sentimental reasons even if they're not performing? Do you have the right asset mix for today's environment?

Insurance

Once you've done all of the above, determine if you have enough insurance to protect your plans.

Does this seem overwhelming, then get some help. Financial planners are always willing to help make sense of these plans to ease everyone into the future.

FEDERAL REGULATIONS REGARDING SAVINGS ACCOUNT TRANSACTIONS

Many members are not aware that, per federal regulations, savings accounts, as opposed to share draft (checking) accounts are restricted to no more than six electronic withdrawals, such as through Internet or telephone banking per month.

Withdrawals or transfers made in person and those processed through ATM machines are not restricted.

All financial institutions are required to monitor member accounts for compliance with these guidelines. Here at HBCECU, our member service representatives will gladly assist you in arranging your electronic withdrawals in a manner that will accommodate your needs.

REMEMBER...

You can only have automatic withdrawals via Automated Clearing House (ACH) from your checking account, not from your savings account. This is a federal regulation, which prohibits such electronic withdrawals. If you have any questions regarding this regulation, please contact the Credit Union.
